

Mason (Age 15)

Mason-DOB 8/11/95

Mason is a bright, personable, and very intense young man. He is skilled at advocating for himself. He is an avid reader and has many connections to his cultural heritage. He is bright in many ways and remembers many details from his past. Mason likes to engage in conversation and seeks individual attention and adult conversation. He likes to be creative and when given a task or activity he enjoys, he will work on it without issue to perfection. Mason can be friendly and kind to others. He has some fears about adoption but would like to find a family that will love him forever. Mason wants you to know that he has an older brother and sister that he wishes to continue contact with.