

Property Records and Revenue is moving to 90 West Plato! Move Details for Our Customers

6th Floor:

The department will cease operations on the sixth floor of the Ramsey County Government Center West building at the close of business on Wednesday, November 28. Some research materials may not be available as items in the 6th floor research room are packed on Wednesday afternoon. Equipment and all contents will be moved on Thursday, November 29. All 6th floor materials will be inaccessible from Thursday, November 29 until Monday, December 3, when we begin operations at our new site.

8th Floor:

We will be open for business at our counters on the 8th floor on Thursday, November 29. On Friday, November 30, the department will essentially shut down, allowing for the move of documents, records, some furniture, and technical equipment such as computers, printers, copiers, etc. Staff and customers will not be permitted on the 8th floor after the close of business on Thursday, November 29.

To conduct business on Friday, November 30:

On Friday, November 30, the main Elections counter on the Kellogg street level will be open and staffed by at least one person from each of PR&R's divisions. These staff members will be able to provide information, accept exact payments made by check, and handle intake of Abstract and Torrens documents that are dropped off. Again, the services provided will be quite limited.

Picking up recorded documents:

Recorded documents will be available for pick-up by companies as usual through 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 29, 2007. After that time, any remaining documents will be packed for the movers. Recorded documents may be picked up at the Plato building beginning Monday, December 3, 2007.
